On February 21, 2023, Mr. Johnson filed a pro se motion requesting early termination of supervision. Mr. Johnson has made progressive strides toward achieving supervision objectives and appears to pose no specific risk to public safety. Mr. Johnson has maintained full-time employment throughout supervision. He meets the criteria for early termination recommended by the Judicial Conference Committee on Criminal Law. He has been compliant with all conditions of supervision and was approved for low-risk supervision in November 2022. Assistant U.S. Attorney Mark Erskine was contacted and advised he takes no position regarding early termination in this case and will defer this matter to the Court.
